

Fall 2007 and Later: Sample Schedules for Patent Law Track

89 credits required to graduate

FULL-TIME DIVISION	PART-TIME DIVISION
First Year—Fall	First Year—Fall
Introduction to LRWA	Introduction to LRWA
Contracts I	Contracts I
Torts	Torts
Economic Foundations	Economic Foundations
Property
First Year—Spring	First Year—Spring
Trial-Level Writing	Trial-Level Writing
Contracts II	Contracts II
Civil Procedure	Civil Procedure
Constitutional Law: The Founding	Constitutional Law: The Founding
Criminal Law
Second Year—Fall	Second Year—Fall
Appellate Writing	Appellate Writing
Constitutional Law I: Structure of Government	Constitutional Law I: Structure of Government
Patent Law I	Patent Law I
Electives	Property
Second Year—Spring	Second Year—Spring
Legal Drafting	Legal Drafting
Patent Law II	Patent Law II
Legal and Economic Theory of IP	Legal & Economic Theory of IP
Administrative Law	Criminal Law
Electives	Electives
Third Year—Fall	Third Year—Fall
Patent Know-How & Licensing	Patent Know-How & Licensing
Patent Writing Theory & Practice*	Patent Writing Theory & Practice*
Professional Responsibility	Electives
Electives
Third Year—Spring	Third Year—Spring
Trade Secrets	Trade Secrets
Patent Litigation & Dispute Resolution Seminar	Patent Litigation & Dispute Resolution Seminar
Patent Prosecution*	Patent Prosecution*
Electives	Administrative Law
	Fourth Year—Fall
	Professional Responsibility
	Electives
	Fourth Year—Spring
	Electives
*To fulfill the requirements of the Patent Law Track, students may elect to take either Patent Prosecution or Patent Writing Theory &amp; Practice. Both courses have been placed in the sample schedule to show a convenient time to register for the course.	