

Property - First Class Assignment

Dukeminier, Krier, Alexander & Schill casebook, pp. xxxi, 1-17
Perspectives on Property Law, pp. 20-28, 170-190

A class website has been created, called TWEN, where I have posted the syllabus and class assignments for the semester. All students must sign up for the TWEN site, as I will use it throughout the semester. If you have never used TWEN before, please check with the law librarians for assistance on how to access the website.

Lastly, I have posted to the class TWEN site an essay, How to Read a Legal Opinion, by Professor Orin Kerr. (The essay is posted in the Miscellaneous section of the Course Materials page within TWEN.) I highly recommend that students read this essay before their first Property class, as this will provide you with the basic outline of the skill set necessary for analyzing a judicial opinion.
