August 2009

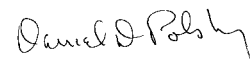

Dear alumni and friends:

Despite continued budget reductions, the law school is weathering the storm. In fiscal year 2009, the dollar amount of new gifts and pledges to Mason Law's general fund and general scholarship fund was up 26.5 percent. Mason Law's alumni participation rate – 11.7 percent – was the highest (by far) of any academic unit at George Mason University for the third consecutive year.

Our goal is to increase the alumni participation rate to 20 percent. Your participation and gifts are needed more than ever. Gifts from alumni and friends add value to a Mason Law degree by helping us attract and retain the best possible student body, provide them with a top tier legal education, and help prepare them for life after law school.

We strive to succeed, but we can only do it with strong support from alumni and friends like you. On behalf of everyone at the law school, thank you for making a difference.

Warmest regards,

Daniel D. Polsby
Dean and Professor of Law
