APIL Auction 2009

Thursday, April 2
Bailey's Pub & Grille
Arlington, Virginia

Schedule of Events

Happy Hour 7:00pm
Paddle Registration 7:15pm
Live Auction Begins 7:30pm

Welcome to the Association for Public Interest Law's (APIL) annual fundraising auction to benefit APIL's Summer Fellowship Program. The Fellowship Program provides grants to George Mason Law students working in unpaid public interest jobs during the summer. The program has grown dramatically over the past decade. Last year, APIL raised over $15,000, and our goal tonight is to raise even more!!! So thank you for joining us, and we hope you will participate generously. Most of all,

ENJOY YOURSELVES!

Thanks again for being with us tonight,

Kristin Assaad & Stefanie Levine
APIL Auction Coordinators

Alison Lima
APIL President

Angela Barner
APIL Vice President

Danielle Pawlowski
APIL Treasurer

Auction Procedure

Numbered auction paddles will be distributed at check-in.

Item Values listed are the approximate values given by the donor. Please remember that this is for a great cause and these individuals and businesses have given generously in an attempt to help with the APIL scholarship fund.

Payment (cash or check ONLY) for your item is due by the end of the evening, at which time you will receive the purchased item. Checks should be made payable to the George Mason University Foundation. To retrieve your item, please bring your payment to the registration table at any time during the bidding or following the Auction.

Restrictions & Limitations

Some Auction items may have restricted use, expirations, or other qualifications. All professor and student donations have a three-month expiration period, unless otherwise agreed upon by the donor. Unless otherwise indicated, alcoholic beverages, taxes, and gratuity are excluded from the value of any restaurant gift certificate.

All prizes and certificates are nontransferable and APIL cannot offer any returns or exchanges.

Sales are final! If you have difficulties redeeming any voucher or gift certificate, please contact APIL. Please keep all gift certificates and vouchers. APIL cannot help you redeem prizes without these. Have fun!

SPECIAL THANKS!

APIL would like to thank our auctioneers, Professors Samson Vermont and David Schleicher. We're sure it will be a fun evening!

APIL thanks the businesses that so generously donated to the Auction. Business cards and logos from our donors are displayed in the back portion of the booklet. Please take a minute to peruse these pages and support these businesses when you can. Many have a long history of donating every year, and we are grateful for their continued support.

APIL thanks those professors, members of the administration, and students who support APIL by making donations and attending the Auction. The Auction would not be the same without these contributions.

Thank you to all the GMUSL students, friends, and family, who will show their support tonight by raising their auction paddles.

A special thanks also to BarBri, Ilissa Belanger, and Dean Victoria Huber for their monetary contributions to APIL's Scholarship Fund.

Finally, we recognize the tremendous efforts of the following Auction volunteers, who had the job of soliciting these items and preparing for and promoting the Auction: Sam Adelman, George Ingham, Lauren Giradot, Malvina Hryniewicz, Ian Loyd, Scott Scher, Craig Rust, Alex Miller, Lindsey Champlin, Elizabeth Kohut, Heather Rice, Melanie Karlins, Kat Ciano, Adina Horvath, Alana Sitterly, Jessie Farace, Bradley Warby, Kelly Gibbs, Bito Mann, and Carol Armstrong.
