I can be seen by appointment or during announced office hours, which are currently Wednesday, 11:30 to 1:00. If you first make a good faith attempt at an answer, you may email questions, along with your proposed answers, to me at mboardma@gmu.edu.

TWEN page: Contracts II  103-02  password: parol

Assignments
January 7: 537-553, then re-read the introduction: Parol Evidence Rule
January 9: 553-568, review Danann: UCC Parol Evidence / Merger Clauses
January 14: 568-584: Interpretation
January 16: 585-592, review Tuesday’s reading before class: Complete Interpretation
January 21: 593-608: U.C.C. Interpretation
January 23: 691-710: Begin Mistake and Excuse
January 28: 710-727, 759-771: Mutual mistake and reformation; Frustration
January 30: class cancelled
February 4: 727-746: Impossibility and Commercial Impracticability
February 6: 747-759: complete Impracticability
February 11: 613-624, review Stees: Implied Conditions
February 13: 624-635: Express Conditions
February 18: 636-649: Modification of Conditions
February 20: 649-669: Warranties
February 25: 669-678: Measuring Compliance (mini-lecture on Perfect Tender)
February 27: 775-794: Anticipatory Repudiation
March 4: 811-829: Seeking Assurances
March 6: 841-56, 94-107: Expectation Damages
March 11 & 13: Spring Break
March 20: 865-876: Reliance Damages
March 25: 877-895: Restitution and Punitive Damages
March 27: 895-907: Lost Volume Sellers
April 1: 914-929, 115-124: Certainty & Foreseeability
April 3: 941-956: Liquidated Damages
April 8: 929-940: Duty to Mitigate
April 10: 907-914: Buyer’s Damages
April 15: possible make up or additional topic
April 17: possible make up or review session
April 28: Open book/open document 3-hour exam