LABOR LAW 256-001 – SPRING 2015

Tuesdays, 6:00 p.m. – 7:50 p.m.

Instructor: Michael Barnsback

Course Focus: This course will provide an overview of the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) including protection of employees’ right to organize, the process for obtaining representation rights, employer and union unfair labor practices, collective bargaining, strikes, picketing and boycotts, and administration of the collective bargaining agreement.

Final Exam: According to the Law School Academic Calendar, the Final Exam is scheduled for April 27th at 6:00 p.m. The final exam will likely consist of 2 essay questions and 25 multiple choice questions. Laptop computers may be used on the final exam.

Grading: Grades will be primarily based upon performance on the final exam. I reserve the right to adjust the grades a plus or minus based upon class participation.

Absences: Pursuant to law school academic regulations, students are allowed to miss up to 20% of the class meetings. Absences in excess of 20% will result in exclusion from the final examination.

Reading Assignments: You will be assigned usually between 6 to 10 cases or other materials to read for each class. Readings may be adjusted as the course progresses.
