Third Year Day, Third Year Eve, Fourth Year Eve:

To graduate you must complete all required courses including: (1) Professional Responsibility; (2) the upper-level writing requirement (one 400- or 600-level seminar and one “writing” course, or two 400- or 600-level seminars); and if you started your studies in or after fall 2016, (3) the experiential requirement (at least two credits of “experiential” coursework.)

The following are additional considerations when planning your schedule but is not a full list of all graduation requirements. Please consult the academic regulations for additional information and contact an academic advisor with any questions.

Full-time students entering their second year ranked in the bottom quartile of their class must complete a minimum of two core courses from the list on this page during their second year.

Part-time students entering their second year ranked in the bottom quartile of their class must complete minimum of two core courses from the list on this page by the conclusion of their third year.

Full or part-time students entering their final year ranked in the bottom quartile of their class must:

- complete a minimum of two courses from the list of core courses on this page prior to graduation; and
- take and pass Legal Fundamentals prior to graduation.

Any student who has been readmitted after matriculation was cancelled for failure to maintain minimum academic performance will be required to pass the Legal Fundamentals course as a condition of graduation.

Core Courses: Business Associations, Commercial Paper, Conflict of Laws, Constitutional Law II, Criminal Procedure: Investigation, Evidence, Family Law, Income Tax, Remedies, Sales, Secured Finance, Trusts & Estates, Virginia Local Government Law, Virginia Practice, or Virginia Remedies.
