

LLM Course Offerings – Fall 2022

LLM IN LAW AND ECONOMICS

Students may take Perspectives on Regulation or Public Choice and Public Law Seminar as a required course. The alternative course (not applied to the LLM required course requirements) may be applied as an elective option.

Required Courses offered in the fall

- 093 * Introduction to US Law (LLM ONLY) (2 credits) - evening
- 108  Economics for Lawyers (LLM ONLY) (3 credits) – online, asynchronous course
- 123 Litigation & Dispute Resolution Theory (W) (3 credits) - evening
- 289 Perspectives on Regulation (2 credits) – evening
- 445 Public Choice and Public Law Seminar (3 credits) - day

Elective Courses offered in the fall

- 475 + Advanced Antitrust Seminar (2 credits) - evening
- 156 Antitrust I: Principles (3 credits) – day or evening
- 237 + Antitrust Economics (2 credits) – evening
- 167 Bankruptcy (3 credits) – evening
- 172 Business Associations (4 credits) – day
- 102 Contracts I (2 credits) – day or evening
- 612 FTC Seminar (2 credits) – evening
- 208 Law & Economics Colloquium (W) (2 credits) – day
- 289 Perspectives on Regulation (2 credits) – evening
- 445 Public Choice and Public Law Seminar (3 credits) - day
- XXX Thesis/Independent Study (also offered in spring, for information contact Professor Catherine Stahl)

* Must take in first semester of law school. Waived for students who have completed the JD degree at a United States law school.

 Must take in first semester of law school.

// Enrollment with permission of instructor only.

+ This course has prerequisites; please see course description at <https://www.law.gmu.edu/academics/courses/>.

(W) Denotes a Writing course.