

LLM Course Offerings – Spring 2022

LLM IN GLOBAL ANTITRUST LAW & ECONOMICS

 Students may take European Union Competition Law or Global Antitrust Law Seminar as a required course. The alternative course (not applied to the LLM required course requirements) may be applied as an elective option.

Required Courses offered in spring

- 093 * Introduction to US Law (LLM ONLY) (2 credits) - day
- 108 Economics for Lawyers (Remote) (LLM ONLY) (3 credits) - evening
- 162 + Antitrust II: Applications (3 credits) – day or evening
- 301 W Statistics for Lawyers (3 credits) - evening
- 259 + European Union Competition Law (2 credits) - evening
- 645  Global Antitrust Law Seminar* (2 credits) – evening

Electives Courses offered in spring

- 259 + European Union Competition Law (2 credits) - evening
- 645  Global Antitrust Law Seminar* (2 credits) – evening
- 432 IP and Antitrust Seminar (2 credits) - evening
- 304 E W Legal Practicum: Global Antitrust Regulatory Comments (3 credits) – day
- XXX Thesis/Independent Study

* Waived for students who have completed the JD degree at a United States law school.

// Enrollment with permission of instructor only.

+ This course has prerequisites; please see course description at <https://www.law.gmu.edu/academics/courses/>.

(E) Denotes an Experiential course.

(W) Denotes a Writing course.