PREREQUISITES FOR COURSE. Income Tax, Trusts and Estates

REQUIRED PUBLICATIONS

- Casebook: Paul R. McDaniel, et al., Federal Wealth Transfer Taxation Case and Materials, Foundation Press, Seventh Edition, ISBN 9781609300098
- Code and regulations: Federal Estate & Gift Taxes: Code & Regulations (Including Related Gift Tax Provisions) As of March 1, 2023, Wolters Kluwer ISBN 978-0-8080-5926-4

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

- Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return (Rev. August 2019) [including schedules]
- Instructions for Form 706 (Rev. September 2022)
- Form 712, Life Insurance Statement (Rev. April 2006)
- Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return (For gifts made during calendar year 2022)
- Instructions for Form 709 (For gifts made during calendar year 2022)

These forms and instructions also are available on the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) website at https://www.irs.gov/forms-instructions. The website allows the user to retrieve the most recent form or instruction by typing in the form or instruction number in the search box. I also expect to distribute these documents during the first class.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES. By the conclusion of the course, I expect the student to have gained:

- a theoretical and practical understanding of the federal transfer (i.e., estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer) tax system operating in the United States and the interaction of each type of transfer tax,
- specific knowledge of the relevant Internal Revenue Code (Code) provisions, Treasury regulations, caselaw, and IRS guidance
- the ability to use this specific knowledge to prepare basic transfer tax calculations and to prepare a Form 706 return and a Form 709 return
- skills in statutory construction and interpretation of the relevant Code provisions so later changes in the transfer tax law also can be understood and implemented

 the ability to apply analytically pertinent Internal Revenue Code provisions, Treasury regulations, caselaw, and other guidance to distinct factual circumstances

CLASSROOM PARTICIPATION. Students are expected to be prepared to participate in class. In accordance with the law school's academic regulations, course grades may be subject to "classroom participation adjustments," in the form of a "discretionary single-increment adjustment either upward or downward "(e.g., from B to B+ or from A- to a B+)." See AR 4-3.2.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE. As a reminder, academic regulations require "[r]egular and punctual attendance and class preparation...to earn academic credit." See AR 4-1. "If a student is absent for any reason for more than 20 [twenty] percent of the sessions of a course, the student is not eligible for credit in that course." See AR 4-1.1.

CLASSROOM POLICIES. No portion of a class or an examination may be preserved by means of a recording device (including but not limited to an audio recording device or a camera). Internet usage during class is prohibited except as directed by the instructor for course purposes.

FINAL EXAMINATION. All students are required to take a final examination. The final examination will be a limited open book examination, and will consist of a number (to be decided) of fact patterns requiring the student to determine the applicable estate, gift, and/or generation-skipping transfer tax consequences. Students will be allowed to access Examplify software, but will be prevented from accessing anything else on their computer. Students also will be allowed to bring their casebook, student prepared outline, and Code and regulations book to the examination site.

EXAM CONFLICTS. According to academic regulations, "[e]xcuses and requests for permission not to sit for an examination when scheduled must be presented, with appropriate documentation, to the Director, Student Academic Affairs. Except in emergencies, such requests should be presented no later than two weeks before the date of the examination." See AR 4-4.1(a).
