

Economics for Lawyers

Professor J. Shahar Dillbary First Class Reading Assignment, Fall 2024

TWEN. I will use TWEN [The Westlaw Educational Network] to post class assignments and materials. TWEN access and information will be provided at Orientation. You will receive the passwords for Westlaw and the course's website (together with a tutorial) during Orientation. You can also receive the password from Ms. Poppy-Anna Bailey (office 407, pbailey7@gmu.edu). For more instructions regarding TWEN, please consult with the syllabus and the library.

Materials & Deadline. By Wednesday, August 14 at 4pm you must (a) sign up for TWEN, and (b) pick up from Ms. Bailey (office 407) (i) the syllabus, and (ii) the class schedule (with cancellations and make up classes).

Casebook. The casebook for our class is J. Shahar Dillbary & William Landes, LAW AND ECONOMICS: THEORY, CASES AND OTHER MATERIALS (Aspen, 2021) (available in the bookstore).

First Class. Our first class will take place on Thursday, August 22 from 9:00 to noon. Make sure to arrive on time (see syllabus for attendance policy). The rest of the classes will take place as scheduled (see also Class Schedule – to be circulated in class).

First Class Reading Assignment. You have a reading assignment for our first class. The reading assignment is posted on TWEN. To be able to complete the first-class assignment you will need access to TWEN as well as the syllabus that you picked up from Ms. Bailey. Please make sure to carefully read the assigned materials and come prepared to discuss.