

Antitrust Fall 2025: First Assignment

TWEN. I will use TWEN [The Westlaw Educational Network] to post class assignments and materials. You can also receive the password from my assistant, Ms. Kristin Motley (office 407, kmotley@gmu.edu). For more instructions regarding TWEN, please consult with the syllabus and the library.

No Casebook. You do not need to purchase a casebook. Instead, I will provide you with a reading packet (“Packet”).

Materials & Deadline. After signing up to the course on TWEN, and no later than Thursday, August 14 at noon, you must (a) sign up for TWEN, and (b) pick up from Ms. Motley: (i) the syllabus, (ii) the Packet, and (iii) the class schedule.

First Class Reading Assignment. You have a reading assignment for our first class. The reading assignment is posted on TWEN. To be able to complete the first-class assignment you will need access to the course website on TWEN as well as the syllabus and the Packet. Please make sure to carefully read the assigned materials and come prepared to discuss.
