Course Overview

Virginia Practice is an important subject for anyone who wishes to practice law in Virginia. It is not a bar review course, nor is it meant to be. However, a student who reads all the assigned materials, prepares for class, and actively participates in class discussions and debates, will certainly be ahead of his/her peers when it becomes time to study for the bar. The Virginia Practice class is limited to civil cases in Virginia. This class, as opposed to the Virginia Remedies class, concentrates on law cases and relevant rules and statutes. The latter focuses on the equity side of the law and its relevant statutes and rules. Both are very important classes, as Virginia still recognizes the distinction between law and equity.

Virginia procedure is similar to the federal rules in many ways. However, in many instances Virginia procedure is quite unique and varies greatly in many areas. Case law is rich in history and tradition, and in many instances does not represent the “majority rule” followed by many other states.

Course Learning Outcomes

The following is a non-exclusive list of specific outcomes for this course:

1. Broadly learn and know the rules and statutes of Virginia, and associated case law, concentrating on law cases.
2. To learn and know the Virginia court system, its jurisdictional limits, and the appellate process contained within the court system.
3. To learn, know and apply the rules of Virginia civil procedure.
4. To be able to understand and comprehend the legal reasoning behind Virginia case law.
5. To keep abreast of recent case law and/or statutory and rule changes and amendments.
6. To learn the practicalities of applying Virginia law to real life legal experiences.
7. To be able to differentiate Virginia law from federal law and laws in other states.
8. To be able to decide if practicing law in Virginia is right for the future course of the student.

Reading(s) & Supplement(s):

There is no specific textbook for this class. We will learn from reading and discussing long-standing case law and recent decisions from Virginia courts affecting the law. Important sources to assist each student in this pursuit are as follows:

All references to statutes are to the Code of Virginia

All references to rules are to Volume 11 of the Code of Virginia

A convenient link for the Virginia Rules and Statutes is Virginia Rules and Statutes

Grading Policies

Participation & Preparation:

This class is interactive and successful learning is dependent upon preparation and class participation. This is not a “lecture” course. The amount of time and preparation each student puts into this class will affect the learning outcomes for all of your student colleagues. We will follow the syllabus and assignments as closely as possible.

Final %: 100

The final exam will consist of twenty (20) short answer essay questions and will be “closed book.”

Classroom Policies

Attendance: Per AR 3-1.4, “maintenance of matriculation requires regular class preparation, participation and attendance, registration in the course of study required for the student’s program (full-time or part-time), successive registration for each fall and spring term of each academic year until study is completed, and compliance with all other relevant requirements.”

Students are required to attend classes and to be timely at all times. If a student knows that he/she cannot attend a class or that he/she will be late for class, or must leave class early; it is the responsibility of that student to contact the professor beforehand by phone or email.

Students shall read all of the cases, statutes and assignments in advance, for each day, and shall be prepared to be called upon to discuss the rules and/or a case in that day’s reading assignments, per the syllabus. All class communication from the professor outside of class will be made through the students’ school email addresses. Students should check their emails regularly.

Absences: Per AR 4-1.1, “if a student is absent for any reason for more than 20 percent of the sessions of a course, the student is not eligible for credit in that course. A student who is not present for at least 75 percent of a session of the course is absent from that session.”

Use of Technology & AI:

Pursuant to Academic Regulation 4-2.2, no portion of a class session or an examination may be preserved by means of a recording device such as an audio recording device, laptop, phone or camera. Any exceptions to this policy must be expressly permitted in writing by the professor.

During class sessions, no student shall access any outside resources unrelated to class topics or issues. Any access to or participation in social media, websites, emails, texts or other electronic communications during class is strictly prohibited. This includes any intra-class communications as well as external communications. If a student has an urgent or emergent situation, he/she may excuse him/herself from the classroom to make/answer such a communication.
