Applying to Scalia Law School with GRE Scores

Please follow the below steps to apply to George Mason’s Antonin Scalia Law School using your GRE score.

Note: These steps apply to applicants with GRE scores only. Applicants who have taken both the GRE and the LSAT must follow the steps outlined in the instructions section of our application available on LSAC’s website.

1. Register with the Law School Admission Council (LSAC). Please see www.lsac.org/jd to sign up for a student account with LSAC.

2. Fill out an application and submit all required documentation. Once you have registered with LSAC, you can find our application at https://os.lsac.org/release/startup.aspx?appl=5827A1. To be considered for Fall 2018 admission, applicants must submit the following items through LSAC’s application service by April 1:

   (a) A completed application. All applicants must submit an electronic application through LSAC. We are unable to accept paper applications. Scalia Law School does not charge an application fee.

   (b) Personal statement. The personal statement should not exceed 500 words and should be double-spaced. The thoughts and words of the statement must be uniquely those of the applicant.

   (c) Mason statement. This statement should not exceed 250 words and should discuss your particular interest in Scalia Law School.

   (d) Resume. The resume should cover your work experience up until the present. There is no page limit.

   (f) Transcripts. Submit to LSAC transcripts for courses taken at any postsecondary institution (including community college or dual enrollment courses taken during high school). Transcripts cannot be sent directly to the law school. In order to process transcripts, LSAC requires applicants to register with the LSAC Credential Assembly Service (CAS). You may contact LSAC directly at 215-968-1001 for more information on how to register and fees associated with this service. Scalia Law School’s CAS Recipient Code is 5827.

   (e) Two letters of recommendation. Applicants must submit two letters of recommendation using the LSAC Letter of Recommendation Service and Credential Assembly Service (CAS). You may contact LSAC directly at 215-968-1001 for more information.

   (f) GRE scores. Your official GRE scores cannot be sent through the LSAC application service. You should answer the question on our application about your GRE scores and should then have a GRE score report for your Verbal, Quantitative, and Writing scores sent to us through the Educational Testing Service (ETS) reporting service. Scalia Law School’s GRE Designated Institution (DI) Code is 2737.

3. Email us once you have submitted your materials. Once you have submitted your application through LSAC and have requested a GRE score report be sent to us, email us at lawadmit@gmu.edu to let us know. Your email will trigger us to pull your LSAC application, LSAC CAS report, and ETS GRE score report.

For further guidance on the personal statement, Mason statement, resume, transcripts, and letters of recommendation, please see www.law.gmu.edu/admissions/jd/how_apply_jd/ and the instructions section of our application available on LSAC’s website.
