Early Decision Agreement

Early decision deadline for first-year applicants is January 15, 2020.

George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School’s Early Decision Program is for applicants who are confident that Scalia Law School is their top choice regardless of their financial-aid package. Early Decision candidates commit themselves to matriculate at Scalia Law School if admitted under this program. An applicant may not be an Early Decision candidate at more than one law school during the same annual admissions cycle.

If admitted, Early Decision candidates agree to abide by the following:
1. Will matriculate at Scalia Law School beginning in August 2020;
2. Immediately withdraw all other law school applications when notified of acceptance as a Scalia Law Scholar;
3. Immediately decline any acceptance that may have been received prior to admission to Scalia Law Scholars; and
4. Not initiate any new applications after learning of acceptance.

Instructions
If you have chosen to apply as an Early Decision candidate, please complete this form and submit it to LSAC with all other required materials no later than January 15, 2020. You will be notified of your decision by February.
