

Early Decision Agreement

If you apply before January 15, 2026, you will have a decision by mid-February.

George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School's Early Decision Program is for applicants who are confident that Scalia Law School is their top choice regardless of their financial-aid package. Early Decision candidates commit themselves to matriculate at Scalia Law School if admitted under this program. An applicant may not be an Early Decision candidate at more than one law school during the same annual admissions cycle.

If admitted, Early Decision candidates agree to abide by the following:

- 1) Will matriculate at Scalia Law School beginning in August 2026;
- 2) Will immediately withdraw all other law school applications when notified of acceptance;
- 3) Will immediately decline any acceptance that may have been received prior to admission; and
- 4) Will not initiate any new applications after learning of acceptance.

To the Applicant:

I, _____, hereby agree that I have read the above and understand the stated policies and practices that govern the Early Decision option at George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School. Scalia Law is my first choice, and I wish to be considered as an Early Decision candidate. If accepted under this binding program, I will matriculate at Scalia Law School in August 2026. I agree to withdraw immediately all my applications to other law schools, to decline any acceptances I may have received prior to admission to Scalia Law, and to initiate no new applications if and when accepted under the Early Decision option. I will submit a $250.00 non-refundable seat deposit within two weeks of acceptance notification. I also understand that I am not permitted to enter into an early decision binding agreement with any other law school.
