Funding

- You must demonstrate that you have sufficient funds available for your academic and living expenses.
- You or your sponsor will be responsible for all payments according to scheduled Mason payment dates for each semester.

The university is required to review your financial documentation prior to issuing an I-20 or DS-2019 form. You must document sufficient funds available for your first year's academic and living expenses and assured sources of support for subsequent years. You are responsible for all payments to the university in accordance with the tuition/fee schedule in effect at the time of your enrollment for each semester of your attendance. The amounts shown on this form and on your I-20 or DS-2019 are estimates only. Your academic costs may vary depending on your housing and lifestyle choices. All costs are subject to change at any time.

The estimated costs for study at the School of Law for the 2024–25 academic year (12 months) are as follows:

LAW	J.D.
Tuition and fees*	43,876
Living expenses	34,358
Insurance (mandatory)	3,900
Estimated Total Costs	$82,134

*Tuition and fees are subject to change at any time.

Students in F-1 and J-1 status are required to enroll full-time during each fall and spring semester but are not required to enroll for summer. The tuition costs shown are based on minimum enrollment for nine months (fall/spring) of study and do not include summer tuition. Living expenses are shown for 12 months.

Sources of Funding

You must document your sources of funding for the full term of your study at George Mason University School of Law. The funds for the first year must be guaranteed, either currently on deposit or documented in a scholarship letter. Funds for the subsequent years must be committed by your sponsor or scholarship source. If you are relying solely on your own personal funds, you must show funding on deposit for the full term of your study. Bank statements may include checking or savings accounts, certificates of deposit, or money market accounts. We do not accept real property, corporate assets, or salary letters. Send current (within the past 12 months) original bank statements and/or letters of support, including the appropriate signatures of the issuing authority. If the source(s) of your support will change after the first year, please explain on a separate sheet. Your signature is required below.

For each year of study, students must show a total of $82,134. Please refer to the table above.
