Honor Code/Release Statement

George Mason University shares the tradition of an honor system that has existed in Virginia since 1842. The Honor Code is an integral part of university life, and it is the student's responsibility to understand the provisions of the code. Attempted cheating, plagiarism, lying, and stealing constitute Honor Code violations. I certify all information given on the application is true and correct, and I will read and accept the responsibility of the Honor Code if I am approved for admission to George Mason University. The School of Law Admissions Office and School of Public Policy Admissions Offices will work collaboratively to review applications to the JD/MPP program. To facilitate this process, joint degree applicants are asked only to complete this supplemental application form. I understand that in order to be reviewed for the joint JD/MPP degree, my law school application and all of its contents, including the LSDAS report and my law school transcript, will be released to the School of Public Policy Admissions Office.
